

M
111

THE WINNIPEG
Dickens Fellowship

[1923]

$35-

JA

"An occasion of feasting and festival. The celebration of a birthday in the family."

THE WINNIPEG
Dickens Fellowship

RECEPTION and DINNER

In commemoration of the One Hundred and Eleventh Anniversary of the birth of Charles Dickens. Born February 7th.

Thursday, February 8th
Fort Garry Hotel

Reception at 7

Dinner 7-30.

MENU

"Yes, yes, your supper will be ready in a minute."—

THE HAUNTED MAN

Grace

-

-

-

-

REV. CANON GILL

"A short and pious grace."—MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT.

FRUIT COCKTAIL

"Nature gives to every time and season some beauties of its own."—NICHOLAS NICKLEBY.

SOUP

Cream of Chicken

Reine

"There's soup—she's a making it now. Ain't she a-putting in the water? Oh! not at all, neither."—BAILEY JR.

ROAST

Prime Ribs of Beef Yorkshire Pudding

"Smell it, father dear," said Meg, "only smell it!"—
THE CHIMES.

VEGETABLES

Potatoes, Rissoles Green Peas au beurre

"He brought the vegetables and took the covers off."—
DAVID COPPERFIELD.

DESSERT

English Plum Pudding Pickwick Sauce

"That was the pudding, oh, a wonderful pudding."—
A CHRISTMAS CAROL.

FANCY CAKES

"Ah! It's very nice," said Toby.—THE CHIMES.

COFFEE

"A charming dinner in a charming room."—MUGBY JUNCTION

PROGRAMME

"At last the dinner was done and the cloth cleared."

"Betsy, I will now propogate a toast."

Chairman: MR. ISAAC F. BROOKS

Toast - - - - - "The King"

THE CHAIRMAN

Song - - - - - Selected

MRS. W. A. CONNEL

Toast - - - "The Immortal Memory"

MR. J. J. MONCRIEFF

Sketches - - - - - Selected

MR. NORMAN HALL

Toast - - - "The Dickens Fellowship"

PROFESSOR A. W. CRAWFORD

H. GERALD WADE

Song - - - - - Selected

MRS. W. A. CONNEL

Address - - - "The Good Old Times"

PROFESSOR W. T. ALLISON

Toast - - - "The Dickens Players"

MRS. C. P. WALKER

MR. FRED LUCE

Sketches - - - - - Selected

MR. NORMAN HALL

Toast - - - "The Ladies"

And particularly some ladies of Dickens

PROFESSOR FRANK ALLEN

MISS MARY L. ROBERTSON

AULD LANG SYNE

"God Bless Us Every One."—TINY TIM.

The Dickens Memorial

NO. 48, DOUGHTY STREET.

To be the Fellowship's Headquarters, Library, Museum and Picture Gallery.

The London Mecca for Dickensians.

